Soldiers Welcome an Enjoyable Affair

Woman Institute Raise Near
$200 for G.W.V.A.

[CONTRIBUTED].

The residents of Gleichen and community are indebted to the Gleichen Women's Institute for a "red letter" night—and one that will live long in our memory—last Friday, when a dance and supper was given in honor of our returned soldiers. The spirit of good fellowship that prevailed—together with the untiring efforts of the ladies to make each individual feel that he or she was a factor in the gathering—made the occasion a sort of family reunion, and even when the final strains of "God Save the King" floated through the well-filled hall at 3 A. M., Saturday, all assembled seemed loath to depart.

The Gleichen band, with Mr. Weston at the helm, rendered a credible selection at the opening of the entertainment. The musicians showed a marked improvement, which is the natural outcome of conscientious practice. Under Mr. Weston's leadership, we hope to have a band of which Gleichen will be proud. During the evening several other selections were given which contributed greatly to the success of the occasion.

Mayor Tudhope, who presided at the entertainment given as a prelude to the supper and dance, gave a brief address of welcome which was apropos and well-received. His good humor permeated the atmosphere, as it were, and put everyone present in that particular spirit which is receptive to a good time.

Mrs. McLean followed with a contralto solo and her rich voice was in excellent control. Then came Miss Trego with recitations. This young lady has without a doubt, remarkable talent, and we would not be surprised to hear from her in fields far removed from Gleichen where laurels await her in a public career.

Mr. Barron needs no introduction and his baritone solo was of the same excellent quality as usual.

Mr. Doucette, a temporary addition to The Call staff was asked for a recitation, which he gave in a credible manner; he was assisted by Mrs. Onstad at the piano, thus being carried over the rough spots that is usually the lot of a stranger in a strange land.

Mr. Guay, in a violin solo, gave us a real treat. His technique is wonderful and we can but add, as in the case of Miss Trego, we would not be surprised to hear from him as a public entertainer.

Miss Noble, president of the Women's Institute of Alberta, addressed the gathering for a short time in which she nicely blended her remarks of the welcome home of the soldiers with the work of the Institute. We have not the space at this time to give to the great progress this Society is making throughout the world, but at a near date hope to publish the interesting facts the speaker made vivid to her audience, also the worthy aims and objects of the Institute. Mrs. Noble is one of the most interesting ladies who ever addressed a Gleichen audience, and it is hoped ere long that she will favor us with another visit.

On behalf of the returned soldiers, in whose honor the Institute called the citizenry together, Sergt. Major Jack Roberts, D. C. M., in a

The special prizes for the Gleichen District Agricultural Association exhibition, to be held August 15 and 16, is increasing daily and those who want to give other prizes must speak at once as The Call hopes to start printing the prize list within the next few days.

Those who have looked the prize list over pronounce it the best yet offered of its nine predecessors and it certainly should bring thousands of entries.

Standard Prepared for Big Crowd Next Tuesday, July 1st

Next Tuesday is Dominion Day and is to be royally celebrated at Standard, when all are invited to visit that new town and join with the citizens in making it the most enjoyable day in a life time.

The committee in charge has arranged a program that contains all the old sports as well as many new features and the prizes offered are most liberal for each event.

One of the most attractive features will be the baseball tournament for $75 in which four teams have entered, Gleichen, Strathmore, Rosebud and Rockyford. This alone should draw a big crowd, but there is also horse races, tug of war and general sports, the climax to result in a big dance in Standard's new hall—not forgetting G.W.V.A. band from Calgary will be present all day.

That there will be a big crowd present from Gleichen and all other points is a foregone conclusion, so fall in with the bunch early next Tuesday morning and head for Standard.

short address thanked the ladies for their thoughtfulness, not only on this occasion, but during the entire duration of the war. He said they little knew how the Christmas gifts and other presents sent overseas were appreciated; not only for the kind thoughts it brought to the soldiers to know their friends at home were thinking of them, but there were times when packages reached the boys when they were actually needed. Sergt. Roberts said his last Christmas package reached him when he was in Germany, and he divided his chocolate with some German children who had not tasted candy for months. He did not fight women and children and having three children of his own he could not see even the children of his enemy want candy, but the Germans could not understand how he could be kind to their children. The Sergeant-Major did not claim to be a speaker, but he said he could not overlook the opportunity of expressing his most sincere thanks to the people of Gleichen, especially the ladies; and he was glad to be able to say that every man, of all who enlisted, returned home bringing honor to the old town. They, one and all, had done their duty and many had made the supreme sacrifice. His talk throughout was quite interesting, and, in fact, he surprised not a few of his friends in the able manner in which he spoke, and he received a most hearty applause.

Following the olio, the assemblage made a charge on the place where the eatables were served and where members of the Women's Institute were gathered to serve the wants of the hungry. Space will not permit mention of the many good things on the bill of fare—nearly all of which was contributed by the big-hearted women of the community. The writer will vouch for the fact that there was no occasion for anyone to leave the festive board feeling that they could have enjoyed more than was pressed on them by the generous ladies in attendance. Neither will rhetoric permit us to do justice to the magnificent idea that prompted the Women's Institute to bring the returned boys together in happy reunion. No spirit of selfishness entered here, as will be attested by the gross receipts, which amounted to over $800.00. Deducting expenses, there will be a tidy sum in the neighborhood of $200.00 which will be donated to the Great War Veterans Association. The ladies of the Institute will meet tomorrow (Thursday), to go over financial matters, and a full report will appear in the columns of this paper next issue.

Dancing followed the supper and no number was offered that did not see the floor taxed to its capacity. The music was furnished by Mrs. Onstad's Orchestra, which includes Mrs. Onstad at the piano, Mr. A. Wetton, cornet; and Mr. W. J. Harris, violin. They were very generous with their music, responding to encore after encore with rare good nature. In all, the affair was a huge success, and we will look forward hopefully to a repetition of it.

It is the writer's privilege to know that the returned soldiers wish to thank the Women's Institute and the citizens of Gleichen for the enjoyable evening spent as their guests, of whom there were about fifty present.

Tenders Awarded for Agricultural School

An Edmonton dispatch says that tenders were opened last Thursday for three new agricultural schools at Raymond, Youngstown and Gleichen. The successful tenders aggregate $180,419, and are awarded to Smith Bros., and Wilson, Lethbridge, $144,000; Ross Bros., Edmonton, for plumbing, etc., $33,000, and H. H. Depew, Edmonton, electrical work, $3,419.

The Women's Institute will meet Thursday evening, June 26, at the home of Mrs. D. Brereton, North Camp. Roll call: "Where we would like to spend our vacation and why". Cars will leave Mrs. Farquharson's at 7:30 sharp.

Baseball

OBSERVATIONS OF A ROOTER.

The Gleichen base ball team is gradually rounding into better shape and is showing the effect of their several recent hard practices and games. The diamond, which heretofore was a disgrace, has been gone over, scraped and reailed by members of the team, and a noticeable improvement will be seen by the fans at the next game. The boys realize that they will have stiff opposition and are determined that Gleichen will win a good majority of their games in the future, and if real practice and the improvement shown in their latest games is any criterion, they ought to fulfil their vow.

The game against Cluny on Monday was too one-sided to be interesting, the home team winning 14 to 4. About the only bright spot was the remarkable reversal in batting form shown by the locals who hit hard and often.

Smith, the new pitcher, made his first appearance in the box and got away very nicely.

The game at Strathmore, which was won by the Strathmore nine, should never have been lost by the Gleichen boys as they were leading by a score of 14 to 7 at the beginning of the eighth inning. Up to this time Benton, who was pitching Gleichen, was going steady, but the home team started hitting him hard in the eighth and kept it up in the ninth, scoring enough runs to win in the ninth before a man was retired. The Gleichen management might have saved the game had they taken Benton out of the box and substituted Jack McArthur or Smith, but they didn't and let Benton see it through.

Wednesday night against Geo. Taylor's "All Stars" the locals won 7 to 2, with Buck Lapp only playing his proper position—James on first base, Smith short stop and Jack McArthur in the box. Jack pitched a neat, heady game, keeping the "All Stars" hitting the ball to the infield practically all the time.

On Friday the big game of the week with Vulcan was postponed when the weather man took a hand in the proceedings. It appeared too bad as the boys were right on edge after steady work all week and were all tuned up to make the team from the south go the limit to earn the verdict.

This week it is expected Strathmore and Bassano will be here for games and on Friday and Saturday the boys play the Calgary team at Calgary.

Buck Lapp, our star second baseman, who was badly spiked in Vulcan, is coming around nicely and is a tower of strength to the team.

C. N. Dye was one of the loyal rooters at Strathmore, and sure made up in noise what he lost in numbers.

It is rumored that Skin Bowen has applied to the management of the team for a try-out.

Another story that is going the rounds and won't be hushed is that the management is on the look-out for a good catcher. If one can be obtained this will release Bob McArthur to play 1st base, thereby giving the team better hitting and fielding strength.

Taking everything into consideration the team won two games out three, had lots of real workouts and with the improved batting and

Stops Stomach Gas Prevents Fermentation Aids Digestion

If fermentation of food in the stomach can be prevented, you go a long way towards stopping the most frequent ailment of the day. Doctors who have studied the formula of Dr. Hamilton's Pills say it would be difficult to find a remedy better adapted to stomach ailments. After once using Dr. Hamilton's Pills the stomach is cleared of the sour, fermenting matter that causes gas, heartburn, indigestion and headaches. You will be pleasantly surprised at the smooth, easy way in which Hamilton's Pills tone up the liver, kidneys and stomach.

It's really wonderful the improvement in appetite, in complexion, in general well-being that results directly from the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They stop dizziness, fullness and swelling of the stomach, they correct constiveness, bad dreams and blotchy skin.

To strengthen the muscular system, to bring a keen edge to the appetite, elasticity to the step and brightness to the eyes, nothing can compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Sold everywhere in 25c boxes.

Value of C.P.R. Land Grant

Misconceptions of the Value of Subsidies Given the C.P.R.

The Montreal Gazette, in discussing the value of the original land grant to the C.P.R., says in part:

In discussion of the railway problem in Canada the traditional misconception of the value of subsidies given the Canadian Pacific Railway persists. At the recent meeting of Grand Trunk shareholders in London, the chairman, Mr. Smithers, more than once alluded to three subsidies as having a value of $350,000,000, and the Toronto Globe, distorting facts and presenting half-truths, thus comments:

"Where did the Canadian Pacific get this princely heritage of land, greater in extent than some of the European kingdoms, for the possession of which the great war was fought? From the people of Canada, as a free gift, to enable the company, by providing cheap and adequate railway service to open up the West for settlement. And have the proceeds of this vast land grant been devoted to the intended purpose?"

"Let us look the situation squarely in the face. As a railway living on its own earnings the Canadian Pacific might be able to pay six per cent, a year upon the capital actually invested in it by its shareholders. As the most richly-dowered corporation on earth, by drawing upon its vast landed estate, it actually pays ten per cent."

"Almost all of this vast landed estate came to the Canadian Pacific from the people of Canada without the payment of a dollar, either in acquiring title or in taxation, during the long period in which the land lay ripening, acquiring value from the labors of the early settlers, who proved its worth."

The Canadian Pacific did not receive a single acre of land from the people of Canada as a free gift; to assert otherwise is a misnomer of words. The railway company acquired the lands as a matter of contract, and did not come into possession of the lands until the contract was fulfilled. The Government, representing the people, desired the construction of a transcontinental railway, partly in compliance with the terms upon which British Columbia entered confederation, partly for the settlement of the northwest, and partly to cement the union. The government, therefore, entered into a bargain with a syndicate of gentlemen of wealth, patriotism and enterprise, to construct a railway from Montreal to Vancouver, agreeing to pay them for the work in cash, in land and in two partially-built sections of the line. Neither the money nor the land, nor the links which began nowhere and ended in the same place, was a free gift. It was payment for work to be performed, and had the work not been performed no payment would have been made. It was no more a free gift than is the money a merchant pays a contractor for the erection of a warehouse. The Globe prates about the princely heritage of land possessed by the Canadian Pacific. Who gave it value? The government? Not its value was created by the company, by large expenditure of money, by promoting settlement, by fulfillment of its contract. Before the steel was laid across the prairies the land was not worth ten cents an acre, because inaccessible for commercial purposes. Even in 1885, after the rails had been laid, the government did not place a higher price upon the land than $1.50 per acre, which figure was deemed excessive by the Globe and its political friends.

One would infer from some of the criticisms that the whole Canadian Pacific system was promoted, paid for, and handed over to the company by the people of Canada; that the earnings of the company belong, at least in large measure, to the people, and that the great prosperity of the enterprise should be censured rather than commended. What is the fact? The price the government paid for the railway is insignificant when contrasted with the amount invested by debenture and shareholders. The railway was considered by investors so poor a proposition, even with its "princely heritage" of land, that the original share issue of $65,000,000 realized only 46 per cent. of face value, and at one time these shares were offered on the stock exchange at 33, with few buyers.

If today the lands of the company have large value, that value has been given them by the company. When the lands were handed over by the government for full value received, and much more than full value, indeed, they were practically worthless; and when these lands are appraised as a subvention or purchase payment, they should be appraised at their value in 1880, when the contract for the building of the railway was made, not at the value given them in 1919 by the enterprise, expenditure and able management of the company.

Heart Palpitated Could Count Every Beat

When the heart begins to palpitate, it will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over your whole system, accompanied by weak, fainting and dizzy spells.

When the heart gets into this condition, you become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social, business or household duties.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief to all sufferers from any heart weakness or nerve derangements.

Mrs. Walter Greives, Apsley, Ont., writes: "I had been run down, and doctors told me I was anemic, but did not help me with their medicines. I could not sleep nights, my heart palpitated so, and I could count every beat."

I used to have such dizzy spells I would have to go to bed. I was not able to do any work for eight months. A cousin of mine had taken Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and told me what they had done for her. I took eight boxes of them, and now I am able to help every day with the work. I am so thankful to tell others what they have done for me, so that they may try this great and wonderful remedy. I hope this may prove good to someone who is suffering the way I did."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

It Is Not All Gain

Neighbors No Longer Gossip at the Post Office and the Corner Store

A farmer friend was lamenting to the Orillia Packet the other day that modern "conveniences" were destroying the sociability of country life. Neighbors no longer meet and exchange greetings and gossip at the post office and the corner store. The mail is delivered and taken up daily at the farmer's own gate. If neighbors have business to transact they use the telephone, instead of driving over, and so five minutes suffices for what would formerly have taken an hour. More and more the tendency is for the young people to hie them off to town by automobile in the evenings, instead of holding socials and concerts of their own. And so it is coming to pass that families can live on adjoining farms, and the adults scarcely ever meet, unless they happen to go to the same church, or belong to the Farmers' Club or Women's Institute. Much as the telephone, rural mail delivery and the auto are doing to relieve the isolation of country life, and to save time for the farmers, the change they are bringing about is not all gain.—Simcoe Reformer.

Many a man is the victim of circumstances simply because he is too lazy to avoid being victimized. Every time a circus comes to town we have a lot of fresh evidence that men are but grown up children.

The man who has never tried to manage an opera company has missed a few of life's trials and tribulations.

The society of ladies is a school of politeness for men.

It is as important to be sure you are wrong before backing out as it is to be sure you are right before going ahead.

Passing the Blame

German Military Leaders Trying to Find Excuses for Failure

Each of the German military and naval leaders, who by any chance has been or may be charged with responsibility for the loss of the war is reported either to have published or to be preparing his own vindication. Gen. Ludendorff has an apology in hand; General von Falkenhayn, chief of staff from November, 1914, to August, 1916, has an explanation ready for the press. Before this month is over Grand Admiral von Tirpitz will have issued his defense and is said to have selected as its title, "Why I failed." It is at least to his credit that he acknowledges failure, however much he may seek to pass the blame to other shoulders. As for the other supermen of the Prussian persuasion, one and all are more concerned with demonstrating how someone else failed and how impossible it was to repair the errors that others committed.

Ludendorff recently put the blame for the loss of the war on von Moltke, on von Falkenhayn and on Nicolai, the last-named the head of the German military intelligence service. General von Hoffman has saddled the responsibility on von Falkenhayn. Von Falkenhayn probably will blame von Hindenburg, the kaiser or von Moltke. Von Moltke is always the most convenient scapegoat. He can make no rejoinder, being dead.

Von Tirpitz had no forerunner, as the creator of the German navy, as the challenger of British sea power and the father of practical U-boat warfare. He cannot push the responsibility back. And his successors only followed the fatal course laid down by him. So he must face the fact of Germany's failure on the sea, which entailed failure on land. He had his way. And that way meant suicide for Germany. He cannot dissociate himself from the catastrophe. The best he can do will be to drag in other German leaders as co-architects and accomplices.

Ludendorff is manifestly one of these. He consented to the renewal of unrestricted submarine warfare in February, 1917. He displaced Hindenburg on that issue, becoming, in effect, a political as well as a military dictator. He had the power in January to stop the illegitimate U-boat activities. He also had the power as late as April of that year to rescind the proclamation of war on neutral shipping, which forced the United States into the contest. But he didn't interfere. He seemed to have hopes that a successful U-boat campaign would supplement German victories on land and thus help him to vanquish France, Great Britain and Italy, as he had already vanquished Russia.

This illusion was Germany's ruin. Von Tirpitz and Ludendorff were equally the sponsors for it. What they write now about themselves and each other can hardly lessen their culpability as the joint authors of Germany's downfall.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Under Bolshevik Rule

Executions Carried Out While Red Army Bands Played "Lively Airs"

Never before, even in the darker days of a world which has witnessed many horrors, has there been such a blood-lust as the ghoulies of twentieth-century Russia fomented. Where, in past records, can we find, for instance, anything to equal a story hidden in the pages of the British White Paper, of executions carried out while the Red army bands played "lively airs?" One witness of such orgy has recorded that on one occasion he was playing in the band and, as usual, all the people to be executed were brought to the edge of the grave. Their hands and feet were tied together, so that they would fall forward into the grave. They were then shot through the neck by Lettish soldiers. When the last man had been shot the grave was closed up, and on this particular occasion the bandman saw the grave moving. Not being able to stand the sight of it, he fainted, whereupon the Bolsheviks seized him, saying that he was in sympathy with the prisoners. They were on the point of killing him, but other members of the band explained that he was really ill and he was then let off.—London Daily Telegraph.

The "Monstrous Bore"

So far back as the days of George IV. there were heated discussions on the Channel tunnel scheme according to a writer in the Star. A song called "Bubbles," published in 1825, contains this verse:

A tunnel underneath the seas from Calais straight to Dover, sirs, That quailish folk may safely cross by land from shore to shore;

With sluices made to drown the French, if e'er they would come over, sirs,

Has long been talked of, till at length 'tis thought a monstrous bore.

Judge Wants Power To Deport Aliens

Ontario Chief Justice Says Present Machinery Utterly Insufficient

Toronto. — In its presentation to Chief Justice Sir William Mulock, the Grand Jury at the Assizes reported that the majority of cases it had been called on to deal with had been of a serious nature: murder, attempted murder, and manslaughter. "We have been impressed by the fact," the presentment read, "that the foreign elements contributed largely to these serious cases, and this grand jury endorses any legislation to limit the influx of foreigners to this country. It is the opinion of this grand jury that any steps taken towards the deportation of these undesirables now within the country would be greatly in the interests of the country at large."

Sir William remarked that the machinery for deportation was utterly insufficient, and added that he did not see why there should be any statutory limitations. Every court, he thought, should have the right to try and deport aliens. Some aliens came to the country, remained quiet for a time, but eventually their early environment reassessed itself.

The cereal crops of the United States were worth over $7,000,000,000 to the farmers who raised them in 1918.

Never Troubled With Headache

This Relief From Suffering Fully Appreciated by the Writer of This Letter — Tells Others How Cure Was Effected

South Fork, Sask., June 9. — Mrs. Lettis, of this place, has a happy experience to relate. She suffered terribly with headaches, but headache medicines never seemed to help her. The trouble came from torpid, sluggish action of the liver, kidneys and bowels, and when this condition was overcome by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the headaches disappeared, and Mrs. Lettis felt that her health was greatly benefited.

Mrs. A. F. Lettis, South Fork, Sask., writes: "I suffered from terrible headaches, so severe I thought sometimes I would go crazy from them. No remedy I ever tried helped me until I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Since using these I can say I am never troubled with headaches now, and feel much better generally."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. O. P. Cole, Postmaster at South Fork, Sask.

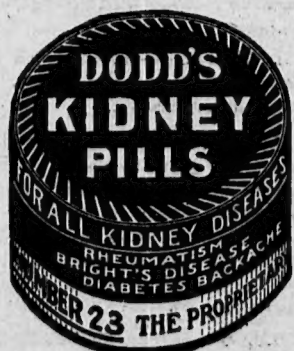

Mrs. F. L. Harris, Keatley, P.O., Sask., writes: "I was suffering from liver trouble — had a heavy pain under one shoulder-blade all the time, and was nearly as black as dirt around the eyes, so I concluded to try some of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and before I had taken one 25c box the pain had left me, and I commenced to gain in flesh, and by the time I had taken two boxes I was completely cured and felt like a new person. My trouble was caused by heavy work out of doors, and, of course, heavy eating, and constipation. I would advise any one suffering from kidney or liver trouble to give Dr. Chase's Pills a trial."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Refuse substitutes. The genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., on the label.

Wins 20,000 Francs

For being the first aviator to successfully land his plane on the roof of a building, J. Vedrines, noted French aviator, was awarded a prize of 20,000 francs. Vedrines landed on the top of the Galleries Fayette, Paris, an area about 45 x 80 feet. Additional credit for this remarkable achievement is given him because the spread of his planes was only a little less than the width of the roof.

The first sperm whale found on the Californian coast in forty years was discovered in Monterey Bay by rock cod fishermen, who found the carcass off Point Pinos. The fishermen reported that the whale — which was 65 feet long — had been killed by a species of dolphin called the "killer." Its tongue had been eaten out. The whale was towed in and sold to a local fish company, and ten barrels of case oil were obtained from its head.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JUNE 15

PRAYER

I. The Proper Motive in Prayer (Matt. 6:5-8).

The righteousness which counts with God is doing right deeds with the right motive. Righteousness as the act of praying is it may be an abomination unto God:

1. If it be to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). Much of the public praying is false — when there is more thought of what the people think than of what God thinks. In praying the individual is dealing with God, therefore if he be engaged in it to attract men's attention it is blasphemous. It is not wrong to pray on the street corner and in the synagogues; that which is condemned is doing it to be seen of men.

2. If there be the use of vain repetitions (v. 7). This does not mean that we should ask but once, for we have examples of Christ and of Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26: 39-46; II. Cor. 12:7-8), but meaningless repetitions as done by the heathen. The reason assigned is that "your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him" (v. 8). God is pleased with true prayer (v. 6). We should have a real desire for fellowship with God. Since prayer is a transaction of the soul with God, we should go to our inner chamber, where only God can hear, and there commune with him.

II. The Right Prayer (Matt. 6:9-15).

1. Right relationship. "Our Father." Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26) can pray aright.

2. Right attitude. "Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come." When we realize that we have been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of His dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being made the children of God we cannot help pouring out our souls to him in gratitude and praise, longing for the coming of his kingdom.

3. Right spirit. (1) That of trust which looks to Him for daily bread. (2) That of love which results in the forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayer of the one who has an unforgiving spirit. (3) That of holiness which moves us to pray not to be led in temptation, and longs to be delivered from the evil one.

4. The ascription of praise. "Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever."

III. Persistence in Prayer (Luke 18:1-8).

The teaching of this parable is that men ought always to pray and not to faint (v. 13). The context shows that praying should be the business of the church while the Lord is absent. Having referred to the coming of the Lord at the close of the preceding chapter, he uses this parable to enforce the obligation of the church under the figure of a widow crying day and night unto God. Though the unjust judge had neither fear of God nor regard for man, he avenged her of her enemies. Much more, then, will the tender-loving Father, God, avenge his own elect (v. 7). God is pleased with those who persistently pray, or, as popularly expressed, "pray through."

IV. The Proper Attitude in Prayer (Luke 18:9-14).

This is brought out in striking contrast by two men praying. The Pharisee's sense of self practically excluded the consciousness of God. The poor publican had a most keen sense of God, and therefore sought His mercy. The Pharisee presented personal credentials, while the publican cast himself upon God's mercy. The publican was justified, while the Pharisee was rejected. Let us come into the presence of God with humility, for God is holy.

Lithuania And Its People

Language Is One of Oldest Now Spoken

Lithuania is situated in the basin of the Niemen and Dvina rivers on the southeastern coast of the Baltic Sea. The capital is Vilna. Its area is approximately 80,000 square miles, the population about nine millions, of whom seven millions are Lithuanians, three and a half million Lithuanians proper, one and a half millions using Slavic dialects, and two million Letts. The country also contains a third of a million Poles. The rest of the population consists of Jews, White Russians, Germans and Mongols. It is said that there is no trace in the world's history of any other people having lived in these regions. Although situated between the Slavs and the Teutons, the Lithuanians are in no way related to them. They claim that their language is one of the oldest now spoken in the world. It is said strikingly to resemble ancient Sanskrit.

Thousands of the best housekeepers have discovered that using half sugar and half Lily White Corn Syrup makes preserving more uniformly successful.

To start with, the consistency is bound to be just right from the very nature of the syrup; there is no danger of the preserves crystallizing; the syrup brings out the natural flavour of the fruit; the keeping quality is excellent and the preserves do not have the cloying sweetness of all sugar.

For better preserves, use Lily White Corn Syrup.

Armenia's Claims For Independence

President of Delegation at Peace Conference Summarizes Events

New York, N.Y.—Armenia's case for independence was stated in full by Avetis Aharonian, president of the Armenian delegation at the peace conference, in the memorandum. He presented to the conference some time ago, a copy of which has now been made available to this office. The memorandum, which summarizes the series of events in northern Armenia which culminated in the establishment of the Republic of Armenia, concludes as follows:

"It is this republic, whose government and parliament sit in its capital, at Erivan, which has delegated us as its representatives to the peace conference, and has charged us to submit to it the following:

"1. Russia, in abandoning the Armenians to their lot, in spite of their prayers, in bequeathing to them a war which it was manifestly beyond their power to carry on; in handing over to Turkey by the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, without even consulting them, the Armenian provinces of the Caucasus, Kars, Ardahan, and Naghism, thereby causing incalculable injury to hundreds of thousands of Armenians, has, by these very acts and of her own free will, broken for ever all ties existing between Russia and Armenia.

"2. The Republic of Armenia, accordingly, believes itself justified in demanding the immediate recognition of its independence, which has been merited and won upon the field of battle, and which the success of its arms has obliged even its enemies to recognize.

"3. Taking into consideration this war, which Armenia has waged all alone for the defense of the cause of the allies and the superhuman sacrifices which all the Armenians have made, I have now the honor to claim, in the name of the Armenian nation, the place which Armenia has justly merited at the peace conference, beside Emir Faizal and the representatives of the Zecho-Slovaks, Poles, and Serbs.

"4. The delegation of the Armenian Republic submits that it acts in all its demands and proceedings in perfect accord with the Armenian delegation from Turkey, presided over at Paris by His Excellency Boghos Nubar Pasha."

Bush Fires in Rainy Lake District

Between Virginia and International Falls Gangs Are Out

St. Paul, Minn.—Several bad fires were reported to State Forester W. T. Cox. Heavy rain is necessary to put out the flames, although all are reported "under control." Rangers' reports say fires are making "acute situation."

Several square miles of valuable timber were burned northeast of Mantrap Lake. More than 100 men of Virginia and Rainy Lake Lumber Co. are fighting the fire between Virginia and International Falls, and other fires are running between Vermillion and Rainy Lakes. The most serious are on Vermillion River.

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winona, Minn. — "I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night — would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong." — Mrs. ALBERT SUTZKE, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or "it seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultzke's experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

A GRAND MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Mrs. Avila Noel, Haut Lameque, N. B., writes: "I can highly recommend Baby's Own Tablets as they have worked wonders in the case of my baby. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and stomach, thereby banishing constipation, colic, indigestion and a host of other minor ailments of little ones. The Tablets are absolutely guaranteed to be free from opiates or narcotics or any of the other drugs so harmful to the welfare of the baby. They cannot possibly do harm—they always do good. Biggest Saloon Closed

Average Daily Bank Deposits Have Been $5,000
At Bridgeport, Ohio, the biggest saloon in the world went out of business when Ohio became dry under an amendment to the state constitution. This saloon is located in a city of 4,200 inhabitants, just across the Ohio river from Wheeling, W. Va. It was owned and operated by Sam Ungerleider. It employed 77 bartenders and clerks and had 216 feet of bar. For the last year or two its average daily bank deposits have been $5,000, or $1,825,000 a year. It has made Bridgeport famous in the Ohio valley.
Mr. Ungerleider is 36 years old and is a millionaire. He says he never smoked or drank intoxicating liquor. He estimates that since 1915 approximately 20,000 drinks a day have been sold over his bar. He also asserts there has never been a fight in his saloon. He attributes this largely to the fact that he would not sell to a drunken man or a minor.

Rube Turned Laugh on Wit
The brilliant wit of the bar looked at the moon-faced farm laborer, winked at his friends and whispered, "Now we'll have some fun."
"Have you been married?" he began.

"Y-e-es," stammered the laborer, "once."
"Whom did you marry?"
"A w-woman, sir."
"Come, my good man, of course it was a woman. Did you ever hear of anyone marrying a man?"
"Y-e-es, sir; my sister did."

Mine Destruction In Northern France

Was Dictated Solely By Exigencies of the War

London, England.—A German wireless message, states that Marshal Foch, having asked for certain documents relating to the destruction of the mines in northern France, the German armistice commission replied that no documents existed, as their destruction was dictated solely by the exigencies of the war, and not as a result of a predetermined system. Such information as exists, the commission said, can only be elicited by consultation with experts on the spot, and the German government is ready to send delegates with such information. This offer was accepted.

Paris.—The Bolsheviks, before they retired from Riga, shot thirty persons in the central prison there, according to official reports received by the American peace delegates. The anti-Bolshevik troops captured Riga with slight fighting, surprising the Bolsheviks, who fled hastily.

All the stores and homes of the well-to-do were pillaged by the Bolsheviks and most of the bourgeoisie were compelled to leave the city before it fell. The material damage to the city was slight. In the various prisons, sixteen hundred hostages were found. The reports describe them as being in a state of unspeakable misery and starvation when they were released.

Discuss Russian Bonds

New York Financiers Fail to Formulate Definite Policy

New York.—American financial interests met at the office of J. P. Morgan and company with H. P. Davison as chairman, to consider the Russian financial situation, particularly the payment of Russian external 6½ per cent. bonds, maturing June 18.

Approximately $50,000,000 of these bonds are outstanding in this country and semi-annual interest has always been met, the 5½ per cent. also fulfilling interest requirements.

Both issues have been subject to violent fluctuations since the overthrow of the Russian monarchy, but recently they have shown firmer tendencies. It is understood no definite policy or programme was formulated because of the complex conditions prevailing in Russia and the inability of the bankers to negotiate with any constituted or recognized authorities.

British Reduce Afghan Fortress

Smart Work Was Displayed at Its Assault and Capture

London.—The Afghan main offensive against Thal, under Gen. Nadir Khan, the Emir's commander-in-chief, is developing. The latest official information from him shows that all attacks on Fort Thal have been repulsed. The fort was bombarded and the Afghans occupied the looted base around outside the fort. The air reconnaissance disclosed about 3,500 of the enemy near Thal. Their camps were effectively bombed.

At the capture of the Afghan fort of Baldak, opposite Chaman Bala-chuvian, the British took 169 prisoners and killed 32 of the enemy. The British occupy the fort. Smart work was displayed at the assault and capture. The guns made breaches in the walls and the fort was finally reduced by a flanking frontal attack. The garrison fought bravely, but for the most part was killed or captured. It was the strongest fort in Afghanistan, having thick outer walls and bombproof shelters. Its fall has had a good effect in Kandahar and along the Chaman frontier, as showing the effect of high explosive shells.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

Need For Good Potatoes

Crop Would Be Better if High Class Seed Used

The yield of potatoes throughout Canada would be very much increased if everyone who grew potatoes used seed of the strongest vitality, free from disease. While the variety used is important, the quality of the seed often makes much difference in the yield than the variety.

Seed potatoes from a crop which grew vigorously until the tops were cut down by frost in autumn usually give much better returns than those from a crop where the tops dried up in the middle of the summer. There are parts of Canada where the former conditions obtain, as a rule, and it is from such places that the most vigorous seed is usually obtained.

In 1918 the best seed of the Green Mountain potato yielded at the rate of 38 bushels per acre, while the poorest seed yielded only 57 bushels per acre at Ottawa. In the case of Irish Cobbler, the best seed yielded at the rate of 616 bushels per acre, while poor seed yielded only 26 bushels per acre, a remarkable difference. Just as striking differences have been obtained in other years.

Each grower of potatoes should aim to have a full stand of plants in the field and to have every plant a vigorous and healthy one. There is often a large proportion of misses in potato fields and a still larger proportion of weak and diseased plants which lessen the yield enormously.

Experiments have been tried in different parts of Canada to determine the best time to plant potatoes for highest yields, and from these experiments and the experience of the best growers, the following dates are suggested as being the best: Prince Edward Island, June 1 to 7; Nova Scotia, June 1 to 15; Quebec, May 15 to June 15, depending on what part of the province; Ontario, May 1 to June 15, depending on what part of the province; Manitoba, May 10 to 15; Saskatchewan, May 10 to 24; Alberta, May 10 to 24; British Columbia, April 1 to May 15, depending on what part of the province. The tendency has been in most places in Canada to plant later than is desirable for highest yields. From results obtained, the following general recommendation is made:

Where the spring is early and autumn frost early, plant early. Where the spring is early and summers are dry, plant early. Where the spring is late and autumn frosts are late, early planting is not as important. Where the spring is early and autumn frosts are early, plant as soon as soil is dry enough.

Labor Policy For New Russia

To Combine Protection of Labor With Interests of State

Omsk.—The minister of labor in the Omsk government, a Social Democrat, and a member of the constituent assembly, Lenine Schumilovsky, has made the following statement to the representatives of the press:

"The policy of the ministry of labor is to combine the protection of labor with the interests of the state. The interests of the working man can be safeguarded and the living conditions for the working classes can be improved only on condition that the industries in the country continue to exist and develop.

"We have decided on an eight-hour working day in all industries. The state is interested in establishing working conditions under which the generations should grow up strong physically, mentally and intellectually.

"We have introduced sickness and unemployment insurance. Employment bureaus, with the help of the government, will be established everywhere on the territory cleared of the Bolsheviks.

"Specially appointed labor inspectors have organized chambers consisting of employers and employees to pass upon all questions arising from employment of labor.

"The ministry of labor greets the tendency of the workers to organize themselves into unions, considering it in the interests of the state that the working men should form themselves into an organized, disciplined body."

American Plants in Canada

Many Concerns Include Considerable Proportion of Canadians

Montreal, Quebec.—According to a carefully compiled estimate just made public here there are 388 manufacturing plants in Canada which are directly connected with United States concerns. The average capital is estimated at $682,834, making a total investment of $264,939,592. The actual paid-up capital in the case of 76 of the companies was found to be $51,895,350, and as these companies were fairly representative of the whole list, the average for them was considered a fair basis for making the estimate. A similar list was compiled in January, 1914, the number of plants being then estimated at 450, and the total investment $135,000,000, an average of $300,000. The list does not represent the investment of United States capital exclusively, as the lists of shareholders of many of the Canadian concerns include a considerable proportion of Canadians. On the other hand there is a large number of companies not included, the shareholders of which comprise many citizens of the United States. In the case of some enterprises, for instance, which have always been distinctly Canadian, a majority of the stock is now held in the United States. The total investment represented by the list given may, therefore, be considered a conservative estimate of United States investments in Canadian manufacturing enterprises.

Canada Profits By European Credits

Lion's Share Allocated Under Credit Granted to Rumania

Ottawa.—Nearly $16,000,000 worth of orders have already been placed with Canadian producers and manufacturers under the credits established in Europe. A return which has just been prepared by the Canadian trade commission, Ottawa, to May 31, shows that the lion's share so far has been allocated under the credit granted by the Dominion to the Rumanian government, over $15,000,000 in the aggregate, while just three-quarters of a million dollars have come under the Belgian credit. This proportion is merely accidental, due mainly to the greater promptitude with which the Rumanian officials in London acted after the principle of credits was accepted.

London, England.—Empire Day was celebrated by a memorial service for the overseas forces, at Westminster Abbey, at which the King and Queen with other members of the royal family and representatives of the allied nations, British colonies and army and navy were present. The keenly anticipated American march was unavoidably postponed, public military ceremonies being conspicuous by their absence. Buildings were decorated with flags and the occasion was celebrated in a fitting fashion in the schools.

Swedish Government Asks For Plebiscite

To Determine Nationality of Aland Islands

Paris, France.—The Swedish Government has sent the peace conference a note asking that a plebiscite be taken as soon as possible to determine the nationality of the Aland Islands, lying between Sweden and Finland, at the entrance to the Gulf of Bothnia. The note reads:

"The Royal Government feels that it must insist upon the conference taking into consideration as soon as possible the question of the rights of the population of the Aland Islands to decide by a plebiscite, carried out with the necessary guarantees, whether the archipelago is to belong to Sweden or to Finland.

"The Royal Government presumes that on account of the principles expressed at the peace conference, Sweden will be allowed to take part in the discussion of this question. It is needless to add that the Royal Government greatly wishes that if the plebiscite gives the islands to Sweden, measures shall be taken to prevent the construction of military buildings in the archipelago, and also to prevent attacks on the archipelago by another power."

Act re Stock Running at Large

Under the provisions of the Municipal District Act Sections 206 to 216a inclusive, authority is given to any Municipal District to pass a by-law with reference to stock running at large. By the amendments made to the Act at the recent session of the Legislature, at the request of the Hon. A. G. MacKay, Minister of Municipal Affairs, any by-law of a Municipal District with reference to stock running at large, must be submitted for approval of the Minister before it can be advertised as provided for by section 214 of the said Act, and any Municipal Council that is considering the putting into force of a by-law with reference to stock running at large, should be careful to see that they have the necessary approval endorsed on a certified copy of their by-law before it is advertised. This amendment was asked for not because it was desired to interfere in any way with the business of the Municipal Districts, but for the purpose of protecting Municipal Districts, as far as possible, from trying to enforce a by-law which would be illegal, and which would get them into trouble. The following is a copy of the model form of by-law which is being sent out to the Municipal Districts under the instructions of the Minister, so that they may draw up their by-law in accordance therewith:

By-Law No. _____

A By-law of the Municipal District of _____ No. _____ for restraining animals at large.

1. No horse, etc., (describe animal to be effected), the property of any person, resident or non-resident, within the said Municipal District of _____ No. _____ shall at any time be at large in that part of the said Municipal District, particularly described as follows: _____ (If it is not desired to restrain animals from running at large in any part of the district, use the words "in any part of the said Municipal District;" if, during certain months of the year, substitute particular months for the words "at any time.")

2. An animal at large shall be deemed to be any animal not under direct control of the owner or someone acting under his authority, or not confined within any building or lawful fence.

3. Any animal at large contrary to the provisions of this by-law may be impounded in the manner herein provided for.

4. Pounds shall be established as follows: (Location of pounds and names of Poundkeeper shall be added).

5. Any fence conforming with the requirements of the Fence Ordinance shall be deemed to be a lawful fence, (or Municipal District may define the fence they desire to have as a lawful fence).

6. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, any resident of the said Municipal District may allow _____ head of horses or cattle (up to 100 may be allowed or in the alternative up to 500 sheep) to run at large for every 160 acres of land owned by him within such district.

7. The provisions of Sections 208 to 215 inclusive of the Municipal District Act, shall be deemed to be incorporated in and form part of this by-law.

8. The provisions of the Stray Animals Ordinance, the Entire Animals Ordinance, the Herd Ordinance and the Pound District Ordinance, shall cease to be operative within the said Municipal District on the coming into force of this by-law (if it is desired to retain the Stray Animals Ordinance or the Entire Animals Ordinance, the one to be retained shall not be mentioned in this section).

9. Any person who suffers or permits any animal, which he is entitled to possession of, to be at large within the said Municipal District, shall be guilty of breach of this By-law, and shall, under summary conviction under Part XV of the Criminal Code, forfeit and pay as a penalty an amount not exceeding One Hundred Dollars and costs, and in default of payment forthwith after conviction, shall be liable to punishment by imprisonment with or without hard labor for a period not exceeding thirty days, unless such fine and costs, including the costs of commitment, are sooner paid.

Done and passed in Council this _____ day of _____ A. D., 19____

Mayor.
(Municipal District Seal).

Secretary-Treasurer.

Referring to this model form of By-law, the following points should be carefully noted:

Section 1 refers to "resident or non-resident." If it is desired to make the By-law apply to non-residents only, the necessary change desired should be made.

Section 6 provides for the limiting of the number of cattle or horses or sheep that a man owning land within a Municipal District may allow to run at large.

The question of the number that may be allowed to run at large in any Municipal District, rests with the Council of the District, but no provision can be inserted in the By-law so as to allow the owner of the land to have more than one hundred cattle or horses or five hundred sheep running at large for each quarter section of land in the Municipal District owned by him. It should, of course, be borne in mind that it is not necessary for the Municipal Council to deal with this point at all unless they so desire.

It is important that the provision of the Act in regard to advertising of the By-law should be carefully followed; that is, that any By-law with reference to stock running at large, which the Council of the Municipal District intends putting into operation, should, after the form of By-law has been approved by the Minister, be advertised by notice in some newspaper published in the Municipality, or if there be no newspaper published in the Municipality, in some newspaper having a circulation therein. Such notice shall contain a short synopsis of the By-law, and in addition, a copy of the By-law is required to be posted up in fifteen conspicuous places in the Municipality; one of these places being the office of the Secretary-Treasurer.

If within thirty days of the publication of the notice in the newspaper, ten resident electors of the Municipal District petition the Council to do so, the By-law must be submitted to a vote of the resident electors, and a two-thirds majority is required before the Council can place the By-law in operation.

BUY A N IRRIGATED FARM BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall, and in sure good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures good returns in dairy and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

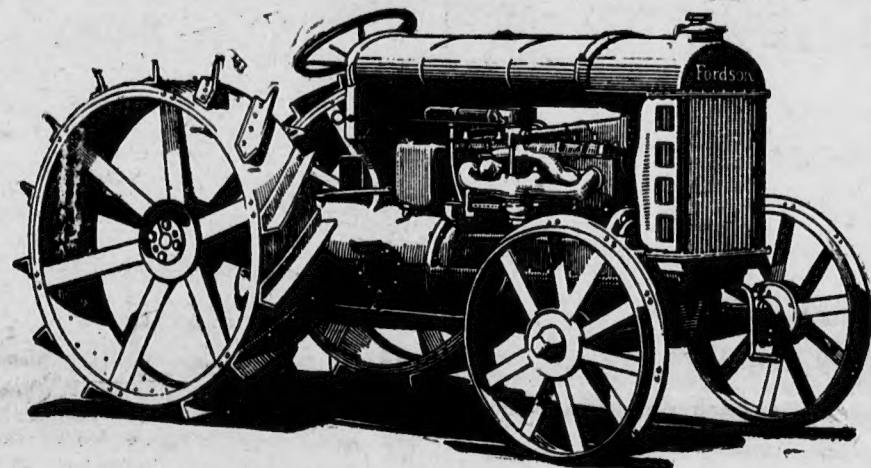

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever in intelligently applied.

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices up to $50 per acre, with 20 years to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000 for improvements (6% interest): no principle after first payment until end of fourth year, reduced interest if settlement conditions are complied and no water rental for first year. Contract can be paid off before maturity if desired.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record. For full particulars apply to

Letter to House-Wives

June 16th, 1919.

The Peoples Market Limited are endeavoring to co-operate in every possible way with their customers, but co-operation is something which must be entered into by both parties in order to be successful. It is our desire to supply our customers with what fresh fruit they will require at the smallest possible cost and in a way to supply the best possible quality. Berries of all kinds are quoted at such high prices that by the time they are packed in crates and expressed through to us this year it will bring them too high for canning purposes, but there is a certain amount of the crop which is too ripe to stand shipping when packed, which the packing houses are putting up in large tin cans which can be shipped through by freight later on in the season and sold on a gallon basis. This fruit can be reheated and put into small cellars and kept for future use much more economically than they can be handled by the crate and shipped through by express. We can also get tree fruit by taking them just at the time when the entire fruit crop is in the right stage to be stripped from the trees and have them come through in carload lots and distributed much more economically than if they came through by express during the season when they are simply picking the first fruit to ripen on the trees and filling the small express orders. If each of our customers will be good enough to advise us as soon as possible how many gallons of each kind of berries they will require for canning and also how many of the regular size crates of the tree fruit, such as Peaches, Apricots, Plums, etc., we will have each of our salesmen supplied with a list on which they can note the name of the customers and the requirement of each, so that we can tabulate them and come as near as possible to filling the requirements of all without buying more than can be used by the community served by each one of our markets. Kindly give this your earliest attention and make a list of what you think your requirements will be and turn it in to our meat-cutter on your first visit to the market, and greatly oblige,

Big Fruit Crop Prospect In British Columbia.

Advices from Nelson, B. C., regarding the fruit crop in the Kootenay district are very satisfactory. Mr. E. C. Hunt who has just returned from an inspection trip over a portion of his district says the fruit is well formed and the prospects point to a bigger and better crop than ever. This is good news to the prairie farmer, who, if he does not grow the larger fruits himself, is not far away from where they do grow, while he makes the money to purchase his requirements with other crops.

The Winnipeg Strike

The attention of all Canada is focussed on the city of Winnipeg, which since May 15 has been in the throes of the greatest industrial strike ever known in the history of this Dominion. The strike had its origin ostensibly in the failure of the metal trades employers to recognize the metal trades workers, and, in order to assist these workers in their fight for recognition, a general sympathetic strike of all workers in Winnipeg was called by the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council.

The claim of the strike leaders is, therefore, that they are fighting for recognition of the right of labor to organize, to engage in collective bargaining, and for a living wage for all workers. But their actions belie their words.

The right of labor to organize in craft unions, to engage in collective bargaining as it has always been understood in the past through such unions, and to a living wage, is not denied nor challenged. On the contrary, it is frankly and openly admitted.

But certain revolutionary leaders who have succeeded in obtaining the upper hand in labor circles in Winnipeg now insist that collective bargaining shall be understood as meaning the right of all workers to organize in One Big Union and to compel all employers of labor to deal with that union rather than with the craft unions to which the men they employ belong. And in order to enforce this revolutionary change, and destroy all international labor unions as now constituted and managed, they ordered the complete tie-up of the city of Winnipeg and attempted to deprive the people of all public utilities, and even the necessities to sustain life itself.

The establishment of the One Big Union, and all that its leaders declare it stands for, including the abolition of all production for profit, the nationalization of all industry, including all land, the release of all political prisoners, including active alien enemies, the establishment of a six-hour work day and a five-day week, can only be brought about by a complete revolution in our present system of responsible democratic government and the substitution thereof of the soviet system of government as they have it in Russia.

The sympathetic strike in Winnipeg, and the strikes called in sympathy with it in other western cities, is, in reality, the One Big Union in actual operation, and aims at the overturn of properly constituted governmental authority as we have it in this country. The declarations of the strike leaders make this very clear, and, after studying the situation, two members of the Federal Government, including the Minister of Labor, himself a union man, have become convinced of this fact. Furthermore, in the early days of the strike the strike leaders actually usurped the functions of the Dominion, provincial and municipal authorities, while their recognized chief, Rev. Wm. Ivens, declared that the government of Winnipeg "had been transferred from the City Hall to the Trades Hall."

It is a revolutionary movement, and unfortunately, a large number of the organized labor unions have been led into it innocently and are being used by these men of Bolshevik ideals. The same leaders of labor are opposed to the One Big Union and the general strike in Winnipeg. They are doing all they can to combat these revolutionary movements, while citizens generally are alarmed and have organized to defeat the attempt to overthrow constitutional government in this country.

The time has arrived when the Federal Government must bestir itself to control these led agitators and revolutionists, and if they cannot be controlled they should be deported. They represent a small but noisy and dangerous element in the country, and wherever they obtain control over a group of individuals or an organization there is bound to be trouble.

In these days following the war, and the difficulties and burdens which that great struggle has imposed upon all nations and peoples, Canada included, it is all important that in working out needed reforms we should be constructive, not destructive, that we should follow the safe path of evolution, not revolution, and that all should recognize the fact that it is the first duty of every man and woman to devote their best thought and energies in the direction of the highest possible maximum of productive effort.

Arctic Regions as A Grazing Country

Government Has Appointed Commission to Inquire Into Possibilities

Ottawa, Ont.—Largely through the representations of Mr. V. Stefansson, the government has appointed a commission, consisting of the explorer himself, Dr. J. G. Rutherford, of the Dominion Railway Commission, J. S. McLean and J. B. Harkin, commissioner of the Dominion parks, to inquire into the possibilities of the Arctic and sub-Arctic regions as a grazing and food-producing country.

It will be remembered that before the Senate recently, Mr. Stefansson referred to the huge herds of reindeer and musk-ox in northern Canada and the enormous grazing lands which he estimated as covering at the least 1,000,000 square miles.

Improved Labor Conditions in Britain

London.—Unemployment in Great Britain, due to demobilization and the end of war activities, is decreasing steadily, Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, minister of labor, told the House of Commons. He said he hoped for greater improvement by the end of the summer.

Under the housing scheme to be started soon, the minister continued, 100,000 houses would be completed in the first twelve months and 200,000 in the second. The road board has made grants of £7,500,000 for the repair of roads, and a considerable amount of work already had been done.

China's First Railway

The first railway in China running from Shanghai to Woosung, a distance of eleven miles, was opened to the public on June 30, 1876. The trial trip—at first opposed—took place on March 16.

Cheapest of All Oils.—Considering the curative qualities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast, and all country merchants keep it for sale. So being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

AFTER EFFECTS OF INFLUENZA

Often as Serious as the Disease Itself

How to Get New Health There are few homes in Canada that were not touched by the sorrow that trailed in the wake of the Spanish Influenza epidemic. Estimates of the loss of life caused by this epidemic show that it was almost as great as the losses caused by the war, and these take no account of the baneful after-effects which are sometimes as fatal as the disease itself.

Victims of the disease are generally left with impoverished blood and a weakened system. In this condition they are exposed to many dangers unless precautions are taken to enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves. The debility that invariably follows influenza is not a disease of any organ. It is a general condition of unfitness. It must be met by a remedy whose good results will be quickly felt throughout the entire system. In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found invaluable. The mission of this medicine is to enrich the blood and this new, red blood carries renewed health and strength to every part of the body. The case of Mrs. George Louder, Hamilton, Ont., proves the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. Mrs. Louder says: "I had a very severe attack of Spanish influenza, which left me pale and very weak. My appetite completely failed me and the least noise would startle me and make me feel as if I was under a doctor's care, and finally he advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had not been taking them long before I could tell they were helping me. I used altogether nine or ten boxes and am now feeling as well as ever I did in my life. I believe if it had not been for these pills I would have been a chronic invalid."

Such proof as this must be interesting to everyone who suffered from an attack of influenza, and who still feel in any way weakened as the result of the trouble. It points the way to new health and strength, and if you are one of the sufferers you should avail yourself of this medicine at once. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Tribute Paid to Railway Employees

Honor Roll Unveiled at Montreal Carrying Names of Eighty-One C.P.R. Apprentices

Montreal.—As a tribute to the 81 C.P.R. apprentices who enlisted for overseas service during the war, an honor roll was unveiled at the Angus shops in the presence of Mr. Burns, works manager, Mr. Muir, assistant works manager, and a representative gathering of foremen and apprentices. Mr. C. Kyle, supervisor of apprentices, occupied the chair. Mr. Burns paid a fitting tribute to the boys who had paid the supreme sacrifice, and asked the apprentices to be worthy of the sacrifice made by their comrades while fighting to make this a better world for other people to live in. He commended the progress being made in school and shop, and reffered especially to the good work done at the evening classes, and to the prize given by the Montreal council of arts and manufacturers. The C.P.R. itself gives five scholarships for proficiency in mathematics and mechanical drawing, while 380 apprentices get two hours instruction each week.

Rural Industry

Great Britain Has a Policy of Constructing Central Power Plants

The government of Great Britain has announced a policy of constructing central power plants at strategic points throughout the country for generating electricity in large units, which is much more economical than the operation of small individual plants. Lloyd George, in referring to this, said:

"One of the most important things the government has in mind is the utilization of our great mineral resources for the production of electrical power on a great scale. This will enable rural industries to be created so that workmen should find remunerative employment under conditions where they can bring up their children in the healthier atmosphere of the country. A great electrical power scheme would also assist in cheapening and increasing the efficiency of our town industries, so as to increase the output, diminish the cost, and thus enable all classes interested in production to benefit."

Poles Are Blamed For Massacres

Washington, district of Columbia.—Information regarding numerous Jewish massacres in central and eastern Europe during last March and April, forwarded by special representatives of Jewish relief organizations, was presented to the State Department by Isaac Siegel, Congressman from New York. Names of 54 Jews who were massacred were given in the reports, which said many hundreds more about whom there was no definite information were killed.

Explained At Last

"Praying Palm" in India Has Been a Perplexing Tree

For a long time the so-called "praying palm" in Bengal, India, has been a perplexing tree to travellers and an object of wonder to the natives, for every evening, when the temple bells are ringing, the palm slowly bends its green top to the ground, and next morning it has resumed its ordinary position. The secret of its behavior has now been discovered by Sir J. C. Bose, a Hindu, an authority on growing plants. By attaching recording instruments to the tree, Dr. Bose conducted a series of observations which show that the palm yields to the diurnal movement of the earth, and that the trunk is regularly depressed every afternoon and as regularly raised every morning. The tree, it was found, is really never in a state of rest, but is in a state of "dynamic balance," constantly being upset in one direction or the other by changes in its environment. All trees, says Dr. Bose's report, are sensitive to environment; but the "praying palm" apparently grows in such a way that it shows this sensitiveness much more visibly.

German Money Dug Up in Samoa

Reported That the Amount Actually Buried Ran Into Thousands

Honolulu, Hawaii.—Richard H. Trent, representative here of the alien enemy property custodian in Washington, District of Columbia, has received advice that about $600 worth of German money had been dug up under a house in German-Samoa. The search was being continued for more, it being reported that the amount actually buried ran into thousands.

When the New Zealanders were preparing to move upon German Samoa, many German residents left Apia and moved to Pago Pago, the main port of the United States possession. It was known that they took with them large amounts of money and other valuables. When the United States entered the war and German property was seized, the money was missing.

Establish New Republic

Allied Forces Will Take No Part in Movement

Paris.—Coblentz will be the capital of the new Rhine republic, which was proclaimed in several Rhine cities. The new government and national assembly will meet there, but the provisional government will sit at Wiesbaden.

A passage in the proclamation shows the movement not to be separatist but anti-Prussian. It says: "Violence from whatever side must disappear. The Rhishen people honestly and sincerely wish peace, based on a reconciliation of all peoples. That is why it separates itself from institutions which are the basis of so many wars, feudalism and militarism. Therefore, it limits an obstacle standing in the way of a genuine peace."

Paris.—The allied forces will take no part in the movement for the establishment of a Rhine republic, the Journal says. The allied powers will observe an attitude of "watchful waiting."

Ancient Chinese Town

Fen Chou Fu Not Immune to Outside Influence

Even as time is counted in China, Fen Chou Fu is quite an old town. People were living there 2,000 years before the Christian era, and when the Manchus drove out the Mings the defeated rulers took refuge in Fen Chou Fu and rebuilt its city walls, although how long they stayed there the Twentieth Century traveler who described the ancient city, in a current magazine neglects to tell the reader. But they made the walls strong, and probably set up the great, long-legged bronze birds that perch on them. In the gateway two upright stones mark the width of vehicles permitted to enter the narrow, crooked streets, and everywhere the crows, hawks, magpies and whistling kites build their nests. An odd, old city, Fen Chou Fu is, nevertheless, not altogether immune to outside influence. The traveler photographed a Chinese wedding party, and atop his native habiliments the bridegroom is revealed wearing a derby hat.

Complaint Against Mexico

Naval Attache of Italian Embassy Subjected to Unusual Treatment

Washington, District of Columbia.—Rear Admiral Count Max Lovatelli, naval attache of the Italian embassy, and his secretary, Camillo Ceruti, have just arrived in Washington from Mexico, where they were subjected to unusual treatment by the Mexican government authorities. It is understood that Count Lovatelli has been summoned to Rome to make a personal report of the incidents which occurred in Mexico, and which have been described in advices from Mexico City as having been totally at variance with the rights of a diplomatic representative of a foreign government.

Dutch to Get Their Home Port Ships

New York, N.Y.—All of the requisitioned Dutch shipping, amounting to 67 vessels of 413,420 tons, now in the service of the United States, will be turned over to its owners in Holland and not in American ports. The delivery of a majority of the ships will take place with the termination of present scheduled voyages to Europe with food relief, with the possible exception of the Ryndam and the Hollandia, which are in use as transports.

Villages Wiped Out by Forest Fires

Prince Albert, Sask.—Forest fires in the north have been raging for some days, and the villages of Debden and Eldred, on the Big River line of the Canadian National railway, were destroyed. Strong winds fanned the flames into the most damaging bush fire of recent years.

Miller's Worm Powders, being in demand everywhere, can be got at any chemist's or drug shop, at very small cost. They are a standard remedy for worm troubles and can be fully relied upon to expel worms from the system and abate the sufferings that worms cause. There are many mothers that rejoice that they found available so effective a remedy for the relief of their children.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE

IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to Make a Creamy Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer; and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

"There's a Reason"

Minor Modifications Of Treaty Terms

New York.—The Associated Press issues the following:

In Paris the Council of Four continues to discuss points brought out by the German counter-proposals to the German peace treaty, especially as concerns territorial questions and reparations.

Experts on both these questions have been called before the council for conferences, and the belief apparently prevails in unofficial quarters in Paris that some modifications may be expected in the original terms of the treaty, particularly as regards the Saar basin and Silesia.

Discussion of the protest of Germany that being left without merchant ships, she is rendered impotent to resume her trade, and thereby unable to aid in paying the indemnities asked, also has been taken up by the council.

The expectation is that the council will heed reports of the urgent necessity to render a quick decision on the matters in controversy owing to the situation in Germany.

One report has it that Herr Noske, the German minister of defence, has inspected the coast defences and ordered the garrisons to be ready for emergencies.

An appeal to the United States people by magistrates of 200 German municipalities, representing virtually half the population of Germany, has been signed. It demands a "peace of justice," under President Wilson's 14 points, and protests against the continuation of the blockade against Germany.

Paris.—These are anxious days throughout peace conference circles, with both the German and Austrian allies in the balance, and every effort is being made to secure early and united action. Many private conferences are going on, including one between A. J. Balfour, British Foreign Secretary, and Col. House, of the American delegation, all seeking to clarify the situation and determine the course of action.

The prevailing view of those taking part was hopeful of early and satisfactory results. They admitted that the conditions were difficult and the differences were rather sharply drawn, but insisted that there was nothing like an impasse or anything threatening an agreement. Indications were that certain general results are already beginning to take form. The German counter-proposals, as a whole, undoubtedly will be rejected, but a number of suggestions may be embodied in the allied treaty, not with any purpose of modifying or softening the document, but for the purpose of making it workable and achieving the supreme end of getting it signed and restoring peace.

Certain concrete results appear to be taking form, namely the fixing of reparations at a definite sum around one hundred million marks, instead of giving the commission indefinite authority to assess beyond that sum, reducing the period of occupation of the western frontier from fifteen to twenty years.

Readjustment of the Silesia terms at which Germany was greatly aroused, so that the population may secure self-determination, probably through a plebiscite. With respect to the League of Nations, the British and United States view at first inclined toward admitting Germany, on the ground that it would bind her to keep peace. But France would not consider any association with Germany. So it is understood that President Wilson has gradually come to Mr. Clemenceau's view of keeping Germany outside the league.

Besides making the amount of the reparations definite, the time for the first payment may be extended. The allies have fixed two years; the German counter-proposal asks seven years. The experts suggest a compromise of four years.

The German complaint that they will be without merchant ships, it is suggested, will be met by the allies chartering a limited number of ships so that the resumption of trade will permit the payment of reparations.

Austrians Not So Arrogant As Germans

Dr. Renner's Speech at St. Germain Made Impression Upon Peace Delegates

New York.—The Associated Press issues the following:

"A peace of right and justice, and assistance to tide over present troubles" are desired by the Austrian republic from the hands of the allied and associated powers over the peace table.

Thus Dr. Karl Renner set forth Austria's needs, at St. Germain, when the major portion of the peace terms of the allies was presented to the Austrians.

"Our state now rests in your hands, and we hope before the conscience of the world that the allies will not abuse this power," Dr. Renner declared.

Under the terms of the treaty, Austria is to renounce possession of large tracts of territory, including Hungary and her colonial possessions. Her navy is to be entirely surrendered, but she is given transit privileges through former Austro-Hungarian territory in order that she may have access to the Adriatic. As to the future of her army, the decree will be submitted later. Likewise the demand for indemnities and reparations is reserved for future presentation.

Fifteen days are allowed the Austrians to reply to the demands of the allies, the same period of time that was accorded the Germans, although in the case of the Germans, it was slightly extended when appeal was made that it would be impossible to formulate the counter-proposals on the specified date.

Reports from Paris are to the effect that the issue over Fiume and the Dalmatian Islands is still the subject of discussion between the Italians and Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson.

St. Germain.—The representatives of the vanquished Austrian nation met the victors at a ceremony in the fifteenth century castle of St. Germain to appeal for grace and just and kind treatment. No trace of the arrogant spirit with which Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, attempted at Versailles to arraign the allied powers as jointly responsible for the war and demanded participation in the negotiations on equal terms, marked the speech of Dr. Karl Renner, the Austrian Chancellor, who replied to Georges Clemenceau, the president of the conference.

The Austrian plenipotentiary, speaking in French as a concession to his auditors, did not seek to extenuate the guilt of the former Austro-Hungarian government for "the horrible crime of 1914."

He asked only that the full weight of the punishment should not fall fully on the little mountain republic, which was all that was left of the once mighty Austria—but that it be regarded as only one of eight new republics into which the old monarchy had been divided, and that it be apportioned no more of the penalty than it could bear.

Dr. Renner even went out of his way to praise the generous relief undertaken by the allies. The tone of his speech evidently made a most favorable impression on the assembled plenipotentiaries.

Delegates of Poland, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia alone evinced discontent at those parts of the speech in which the Austria chief, by implication, attempted to assign to them a proportionate share of the reparations.

It was evident, however, that Dr. Renner had been carefully studying the proceedings of the inter-allied conference, and he adapted his utterances to the situation.

Builds Own Hospital

Village's Only Physician Constructs Building Alone

Hastings-on-Hudson, N.Y.—Hastings-on-Hudson's only hospital, built with his own hands by the village's only doctor, has been completed and opened. Its builder, Dr. Gedney Jenks, spent three years in its construction after failing to raise funds for the work. He did the entire job himself, excepting for the occasional handling of a heavy beam when a passerby was called in to help.

The hospital is two storeys, fully equipped with wards, operating room and all modern appliances.

Dr. Jenks enlisted as a surgeon for overseas service when America entered the war, but the people of the village petitioned Washington for his return. He was sent back over his protest.

Value of Experience

If the average man could live his life over he would probably be a bigger fool than ever.

U.S. Bomb Terrorism

Effect of Outrages Is to Prepare New and Severe Penalties for Convicted Perpetrators

Washington.—Investigation of the bomb explosions at eight cities, which were intended to kill public men, has convinced secret service chiefs here that the outrages had a common source, and that they probably can be classed as an unsuccessful attempt on the part of a still-unknown anarchistic group to resume a reign of terrorism, begun with the May-Day attempt to deliver a series of infernal machines through the mails out of New York.

Washington police devoted their efforts to re-assembling fragments of the man who was killed at the door of Attorney-General Palmer's home, while attempting to plant his cargo of explosives. Mr. Palmer himself dismissed the incidents today as "utter failure to terrorize the country and stay the hand of the government," which purpose he ascribed to the authors of the outrages.

Government experts on explosives after surveying the site of the explosion here and the partially demolished dwelling, came to the conclusion that two separate bombs exploded, probably when the man carrying them tripped over a stone in the entrance. In both houses of congress members began the preparation of measures providing new and severe penalties for convicted perpetrators of such crimes.

Allies Stop General Strike

Germans Protest Against Rhenish Republic

Coblenz.—A general strike throughout the occupied area was declared by the Germans as a protest against the reported launching of the Rhenish republic at Wiesbaden. It was brief, however, being only four hours in duration, the workmen returning to their labors after being warned of the consequences by the allied military authorities. The principal strikers were railway employees and the street car workers at Treves and Coblenz.

When the news of the strike became known, word was sent the leaders that unless the Germans returned to work by 1 o'clock the leaders and all the other strikers would be deported into sections of Germany unoccupied by allied troops. The inter-allied railway commission reported that all the workers had returned to their jobs. Newspapers in Coblenz printed stories denying the birth of the German republic at Wiesbaden, and asserting that the report was an effort on the part of certain Germans to mislead the population of the Rhineland.

Alien Property

Germans Declare American Property Is Practically Intact

Paris.—The subject of German property in the United States and American property in Germany is receiving careful attention of experts, preparatory to an exchange of notes determining the situation.

German property in the United States, outside of ships, is estimated at $450,000,000. American property in Germany is estimated at $150,000,000. The Germans declare the American property is practically intact. Apparently they are disposed to return it, if the United States will adopt a similar course.

While recognizing the principle of inviolability of private property, the American view is that much of the German property in the United States is semi-governmental and therefore not protected as private property.

The merchant ships in American ports will undoubtedly be retained. The first plan was to offset their value against the American share of reparations, but it is proposed now to purchase the ships, the purchase price being utilized by Germany to meet reparations.

Disallow Women in Synod

Anglicans Fear if Women Attended as Delegates It Would Drive Away Men

Kingston, Ont.—The Ontario Anglican synod, by an overwhelming vote, declared against a proposal to allow women to attend as delegates. The attitude of those opposed to the proposal was that if women delegates were allowed, many men would be inclined to absent themselves from meetings, knowing that they could count on the women to be present.

Bishop Bidwell took the view that while the church would benefit by having women delegates, it would stand to lose more than it would gain in absence of the men delegates, which would result from permitting women to have part in the synod. He pointed out that it was hard enough to get men to attend now; it would be harder if women were admitted. Only seven voted for the women.

Huns Must Take Hats Off to British Officers

Churchill Informs British House That This Is Regulation

London.—In the commons, in reply to Col. J. C. Wedgwood, who asked whether the Germans in occupied territories had to take off their hats and step off the sidewalks on meeting British officers, Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, secretary for war, said, amid loud cheers, that when Germans addressed British officers they were required to take off their hats. He saw no reason to suppose that the practice would be discontinued after the signing of peace. This was one of the military regulations deemed suitable and appropriate to the period of occupation. The regulations were very much less severe than those which the Germans were accustomed to impose in occupied territories.

He believed that our regulations would bear comparison with those of any of the other great powers during the war. He was not prepared to deprive the army of its rights.

Replying to supplementary questions as regards American practice, Mr. Churchill said he was quite content to be guided by the officers responsible for the conduct of the British army, which was not likely to be unduly severe. (Cheers.)

Justice Rests With Allies

Australian Says League of Nations Deserves Support

Melbourne.—The League of Nations deserves full support of the British people, but whatever happens to the experiment it will be for the British, French and American people to see that justice is done in the world. W. A. Watt, acting prime minister, declared in a speech at the Empire Day celebration. Mr. Watt said the reported alliance of the British, French and American nations was welcome in Australia.

A pledge of Australia's loyalty to the mother country was to be found in the stress and sacrifice of the war, he pointed out, adding:

"Never has there been a nation so loosely linked together as the British Empire. There was no organic tie, but now that we have been admitted as partners at the peace table, it is our duty not only as Australians, but as Britishers, to do everything in our power to help in the solidification and the making permanent of the partnership. For our self-preservation we depend on the partnership with the mother country."

Petrograd Threatened

Enemies of Bolshevism Are Moving Against the City

Omsk.—A Bolshevik dispatch from Moscow, dated May 24, gives the text of a proclamation of the executive commission of the Bolshevik party as follows:

"The Petrograd front, until recently, was for us a matter of secondary importance. During the last days the situation has changed entirely. The enemies of Bolshevism have decided to take Petrograd, and the Finnish and Estonian White Guards, as well as troops of General Udenich, Col. Belokhovitch and Gen. Rodzianke are moving against the city."

"This unexpected attack has brought about great demoralization in our ranks. Every minute counts. All of us must rise to defend Petrograd."

An unconfirmed report has reached Copenhagen that Petrograd has been captured by Finnish and Estonian troops.

Asks Admission To League

Luxembourg Wish Their Country to Remain Autonomous

Luxembourg.—Secretary of State Reuter read in the chamber of deputies a letter from President Wilson inviting a Luxembourg delegation to come to Paris. He said the government was ready to leave at once for Paris to tell the peace conference that the people of Luxembourg wish their country to remain autonomous and to conclude an economic union with France or Belgium, or if that was found impossible to open negotiations with those two countries to learn their conditions.

He added that the government was also asked that Luxembourg be admitted to the League of Nations.

Afghan Leader Appeals for Peace

London.—The India office makes the following announcement: "The viceroy reports that a letter has been received from the Amir at Peshawar expressing a desire for peace, asking for the opening of negotiations and stating he has instructed the Afghan commanders to cease hostilities."

Postal Employees Are Discharged

Ottawa, Ont.—That the government is determined not to reinstate post office employees who went out on a sympathetic strike in the West and declined to return to duty when requested to do so, seemed clear in two telegrams sent by Sir Robert Borden, one to R. Sincks, secretary of the central strike committee, Calgary, and the other to V. Hollingsworth, secretary of the Alberta Methodist conference.

The prime minister's telegrams were in reply to messages received by him. The message from Mr. Sincks to the premier conveys a long resolution passed by the Brotherhood of Dominion Express employees condemning the announcement by Postmaster-General Blundin, that postal employees on strike should be considered dismissed.

The telegram concluded: "The central strike committee notes in passing that the Dominion government, after having been appealed to by the Dominion government, in a manner satisfactory to labor, has answered the appeal by taking up an antagonizingly retaliatory attitude. The people's government is once more asked to stand behind the people, not against them."

The telegram from the Alberta Methodist conference covered a resolution passed by that body, expressing the view that the action of the government "cannot but perpetuate rather than alleviate the social unrest, and to be subversive of the principles enunciated by the commission on labor legislation accepted by the peace conference, in the preparation of which Sir Robert Borden is said to have had a leading part."

The telegram called upon the government to repeal its action and expressed the opinion that employees of governments, municipal, provincial and federal, must be guaranteed the right of effective protest against wrong conditions.

Sir Robert Borden's reply to the secretary of the central strike committee was as follows:

"It is desirable that your attention should be called to facts which your committee has not taken into consideration. The government has always been prompt to give its best consideration to the demands of all public servants. In doing so it has no purpose to serve other than the public interest. It can only act under the mandate of the people's representatives in parliament and always as trust and guardian of the public interests. The postal employees were bound by obligation and by oath faithfully to serve the people of Canada. They went out on strike in Winnipeg, not in respect of any grievance of their own, but in alleged sympathy with employees of private companies. They were given three days within which to return to their duty, and they were distinctly informed that they must make a choice between directions received by them from the strike committee and the duty which they owe to the people of Canada. Some of them returned. Those who persevered in the strike took their course deliberately and with full notice of the consequences which would inevitably follow."

"In other western cities before any strike took place a most distinct and positive intimation was given to postal employees that abandonment of their public duty, obedience to the directions of another authority and participation in a sympathetic strike would mean their permanent retirement from the public service. The people of Canada cannot tolerate the proposal that under such circumstances civil servants shall be permitted to violate their engagements, to dislocate the public service, to occasion intense public inconvenience and suffering, and to put aside all respect for public duty. The government cannot reinstate men who have deserted their posts under such circumstances unless it is prepared to abandon all effective attempt to maintain the national services."

Murderous Italians

Two Austrians Killed at Hamilton, and Two Wounded

Hamilton, Ont.—Two Austrians were fatally shot and two others fatally wounded at the Tuckett Arm, on the Beach road.

Eight Italians, who claimed they were liquor detectives, insisted on searching the house for liquor. They lined up the ten Austrians who occupied the house, and at the point of revolvers went through their pockets. After securing $1,800, they deliberately shot into the line of Austrians, who were unarmed and who did not resist. Four of them fell, two mortally wounded, and the Italians escaped.

Huns Are Told Some Plain Truths

Berne.—(French Wireless.)—"The German propaganda against the retention of German prisoners of war by the allied governments does not take into consideration what the Germans did in northern France, nor how deeply the systematic destruction there has influenced allied minds," says Professor Foster of the University of Munich, in an article in the Review Montag, criticizing the German attitude on the prisoner question.

"The propaganda," he says, "reveals a lack of psychology and leads one to think that the new ideas have not spread everywhere. One of the most famous German university men wrote some time ago that the idea of detaining the German prisoners of war recalled the proceedings of the ancient Assyrians. It was not necessary for the writer to search the Assyrian annals. Did he really never hear of the deportation of Belgian workmen and of the unheard-of methods applied on that occasion? Does he really not know that hundreds of girls were carried away from occupied French towns and forced to work at hard labor, and does he not know that most of these girls were forced to aid in the destruction of the weaving frames of their own country? Is he not aware of the fact that we have ourselves detained hundreds of thousands of Russian prisoners, not only after the armistice with Russia, but also after the Brest-Litovsk peace?

"What impression is likely to be made on those who are to determine the fate of our prisoners by the fact that the spokesmen of German opinion continue to conceal the German crimes? How could we feel toward France if our flourishing cities had been ruined for years, and if (as we did in a great many places) our fruit-bearing trees had been cut down and only the ordinary trees left?"

G.W.V. Would Probe Labor Unrest

Suspicion That Workers Are Being Systematically Robbed By Profiteers

Toronto.—An immediate effort to reach the solution of the labor unrest manifest throughout the country is demanded by the provincial executive of the Great War Veterans' association, which has been in session here. The executive calls for "drastic steps to deal with the labor, food and clothing situation by the present cabinet."

The unanimous opinion of the executive was that their efforts to find employment for returned soldiers were fruitless because of the labor unrest. This unrest, the executive believes, is largely due "to suspicion that the workers are being systematically robbed by profiteers."

The executive calls for a solution of the high cost of living. It asks for representation upon any committee which is chosen for investigating the question.

Austria Is Apathetic

Willing to Accept Conditions as Laid Down and Thus Bring Peace

New York.—The Associated Press issues the following:

Like the German government, the Austrian government is said to be dissatisfied with the peace terms of the allied and associated powers, which are declared by one of the responsible newspapers of Vienna to be unacceptable.

Unlike the German populace at large, however, the Austrian people apparently are apathetic, having expected no easy terms, and are willing and even anxious to accept the conditions as laid down, and thus bring peace to the sorely stricken former empire, which is rendered by the treaty virtually an inland state of small territorial proportions.

After a casual glance over the peace terms, no German should have any doubt as to who won the battle of Jutland.—Toronto Telegram.

Dodging Responsibility For Starting War

Berlin.—(Associated Press).—Prof. Hane Delbrueck, General Count Max Montgelas, and Professor Weber, German experts at Versailles, have drawn up a long memorandum on the question of responsibility of the war, which will be presented as a reply to the entente commission's report on the subject.

The memorandum argues the necessity of submitting the question to an impartial commission for investigation, and denies there was any secret plot between Berlin and Vienna to destroy Serbia.

It says that the German government could not accept the efforts of Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs in 1914, who offered to mediate, because it doubted his powers to check the warlike aspirations of Russia. Emperor Nicholas' proposal to refer the dispute to The Hague also failed, it is said, because on the same day the proposal was made the mobilization of thirteen army corps was ordered. Russia's imperialist policy, the memo argues, made war with Germany inevitable.

It says that Germany's war against France was one of defence and admits that Germany's naval policy was of such a nature as to arouse the distrust of Great Britain.

Canada's Status

London.—Replying in the House of Commons to Mr. Norton Griffiths, Rt. Hon. Bonar Law, government leader in the House, stated the government intended that representation of the Dominions in the League of Nations should be as full as that of the smaller sovereign nations. Representatives of the Dominions would be eligible for appointment to the executive council on the same terms as other members of the League.

MOTTO: "Your Monies Worth or Your Money Back"

Calgary Exhibition's Greatest Program

The assertion of the board of directors of the Calgary Exhibition that they are presenting the greatest program ever given in Calgary at an Exhibition is well supported by the list of exhibits and attractions which will be shown from June 28th to July 5th at Victoria Park, Calgary.

Practically all of the civilized world is familiar with Lieut. John Phillip Sousa, the band leader. He and his music have become famous in every part of the globe, and he has long since become an institution. There will be several of his own numbers produced when Sousa and his band are in Calgary at the Exhibition.

Sousa and his band, however, is only one of the feature attractions of the 1919 Exhibition. For the first time in history soldiers of aerial fighting will perform at an exhibition, when two of Canada's most heroic aviators will give exhibition flights and carry passengers at the Calgary Fair. These aviators are two of the most daring flyers Alberta sent to the front. They are Capt. Fred McCall, D.S.O. M.C., with bar, D.F.C., of Calgary, and Capt. Wilfred May, D.F.C., of Edmonton. Capt. McCall has a record of thirty-four enemy machines and Capt. May thirteen. The part played by these two young men overseas is well-known throughout Western Canada, and their enthusiasm in aviation is still keen and will make their performances at the Exhibition the most thrilling ever seen in the country.

In addition to such features as are mentioned above, the highest class of vaudeville attractions obtainable have been booked for the evening performances in front of the grand stand, and acts by the Codona troupe, marvellous aerialists, Fink's Comedy Mule Circus and the Choy Ling Hee Troupe of Chinese acrobats will be given together with a different program each afternoon and evening by Sousa's Band.

For the first four days of the week the fastest horses on the continent will vie with each other for the splendid prizes offered by the Calgary Exhibition. These races will be run on Monday, Veterans' Day; Tuesday, Dominion Day; Wednesday, Citizen's Day; and Thursday, Farmers' and Ranchers' Day.

On Friday, American Day, the first of the thrilling auto races will be held, and they will be continued on Saturday, Traveller's Day, the last day of the Fair. The world's champion cars and record breaking drivers have been entered for these races, which promise to be more exciting than ever before.

Luminaries of the gasoline world will battle on the track at the Calgary exhibition on Friday and Saturday, July 4 and 5, for $4,000 in cash prizes and also the honor and glory that usually goes to the victor. The entry list contains the names of the most famous pilots on the circular courses, and Manager E. L. Richardson is proudly boasting he has landed the cream of the driving talent.

The Union Church Sunday school annual picnic will be held this year on Wednesday afternoon, July 8th, at the river. Full announcement will be made next week.

Mr. Strack, of the Gleichen hotel, ever ready to meet the wants of the guests of the town, will open a Rustic Garden on Friday evening, June 27th, where ice cream and soft drinks of every description will be served; also light lunches. The Rustic Garden should become a favorite spot to seek respite from the excessive heat of the summer months. Mr. Strack has generously decided to give 25 per cent. of the gross receipts of the opening night to the Great War Veteran Association.

On Thursday of last week a number of the members of the Gleichen Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Huckville and spent a pleasant evening, during which time Miss Garrett was presented by those present with a table cloth and a dozen napkins as a token of their appreciation of her services as secretary of the society. The untiring and faithful efforts during the war in all Red Cross work of this young lady deserved a reward and the ladies thought in view of her approaching marriage this an appropriate time to observe them. Miss Garrett was also the recipient of a "kitchen shower" recently given by Madames W. P. and G. W. Evans, when she received an immense quantity of useful and ornamental gifts.
